Jobs Fair

Thursday 19 June 2008
17.30 – 20.00

Welcome to the LSE Jobs Fair.

This evening you will have the opportunity to meet a wide range of organisations that are recruiting for imminent vacancies.

In total there are 16 organisations ranging from Financial Services, Consulting, Marketing companies and the Public Sector. Some have opportunities in the UK, whilst others have vacancies abroad.

This event is hosted by LSE Careers Service as part of Career Development Month. To discover all events we are organising, please visit My Careers Service at www.lse.ac.uk/careers.

Current students and registered alumni can view our online vacancy board, a great resource which has over 300 vacancies including graduate schemes, full-time and internship roles. To search these vacancies simply log in to My Careers Service at www.lse.ac.uk/careers click on 'search for opportunities' and you can search for opportunities by sector or by employer.

Deloitte

Website: www.deloitte.co.uk/graduates

Deloitte provide any or all of these services to a huge variety of clients, from global multinationals and world famous brand names, through mid-sized businesses of every type, to small, dynamic enterprises. We also look after the financial affairs of many influential and famous people, including sports stars and celebrities in the fields of media and entertainment.

The breadth and depth of our expertise takes us right to the heart of an incredibly diverse range of the world's premier organisations and blue chip businesses. Working with Deloitte means you'll soon find yourself advising some of the biggest names in the music business – and well on the way to becoming something of a star yourself.

Markit

Website: www.markit.com

We specialise in helping businesses, whether start-ups, mid-tiers or multinationals, to achieve their goals. Our objective is to use this to help our clients maximise their potential.

Our strength in the market place is mirrored in our recent awards which include 'The Times Top 100 Graduate Employers', 'Global Firm of the Year', 'Sunday Times Top 100 Best Companies to Work For', 'Employer of the Year' (twice), and of course, one of the 'Top 50 Places Where Women Want to Work' and listed as one of the UK's top employers in the 'Financial Times Best Workplaces Awards 2007'.

BDO Stoy Hayward has graduate opportunities in a number of exciting areas:

Accenture

Website: www.accenture.com

Accenture is a global management consulting, technology services and outsourcing company. Committed to delivering innovation, Accenture collaborates with its clients to help them become high-performance businesses and governments. With deep industry and business process expertise, broad global resources and a proven track record, Accenture can mobilize the right people, skills and technologies to help clients improve their performance. With approximately 170,000 people in 49 countries, the company generated net revenues of US$19.70 billion for the fiscal year ended Aug. 31, 2007. Its home page is www.accenture.com.

Capital One

Website: www.gradsatcapitalone.com

We have nearly 50 million customers worldwide across a range of financial services products. In the 11 years that we have been in the UK we have already revolutionised the credit card market to become the number one issuer of new cards. We're a growing business in a fast paced industry and our success has been built on the very best analysis.

As a business analyst, you will be given challenging analytical work similar to a management consultancy but different in that you will see the impact of your ideas. You will drive recommendations that will significantly impact our business and take credit for the results.

You will be given the opportunity to become a future senior leader within a global financial services corporation which believes in fast tracking high performers. With Capital One on your CV, the doors are open to top international MBA schools, senior consultancy roles or even your own start-up.

Gallup

Website: www.gallup.com/careers

Gallup is different from most consulting firms. While other organisations provide services in traditional disciplines such as cost reduction, building or re-engineering processes and systems, or mergers and acquisitions, we help companies drive true organic growth — revenue and profit increase from continuing operations. Advances in economics, psychology and management sciences, along with our own research, have led our researchers to discover how organisations can grow through talented employees being engaged and able to engage their customers. Our consultants are trusted advisors to many of the world's leading companies. Our approach enables us to understand our clients' visions and strategies and thereby develop and implement individualised solutions. We are accepting online applications today:

Millward Brown

Website: www.millwardbrown.com

At Millward Brown we like you to be yourself. People are the catalyst for our success - past, present and future. This is why our support and development opportunities are geared towards harnessing your natural talents.

Being one of the world's leading consumer insights and advisory agencies means you'll get to work on several big brands - not just one.

So, if you want to work for a company and on brands that are as unique as you are, contact us today.

Grant Thornton

Website: www.grant-thornton.co.uk

We are looking for a number of graduates to join our audit, tax and business risk services departments on a three-year training contract. Regardless of the group you decide to join our graduate scheme has been designed to help you achieve qualified status as smoothly and quickly as possible and as such, our commitment to training is second to none. Training programmes are held at our dedicated training centre, Bradenham Manor, where you will gain essential business and professional skills through a selection of courses. Beyond qualification, your career development will feature specialist and managerial training, secondment opportunities, and, for some people, progression to partnership.

Amlin

Website: www.amlin4graduates.co.uk

Amlin is one of the largest independent insurers operating in the Lloyd's market. We don't insure houses – we underwrite world events and provide insurance for governments and multinationals. We fully recognise that our ongoing success is wholly dependent on our ability to attract, develop, motivate and retain talented people.

This is why we make the retention of skilled underwriters a business priority. We invest heavily in reward and recognition, culture and values, and training and development – all with the aim to becoming 'the place to work' in the industry. All this, coupled with real opportunities for promotion and international travel, means that there's never been a more exciting time to join.

We are offering a two year structured programme which will give the right individuals the chance to gain valuable experience in 3 or 4 key parts of our business, including one global project.

As an organisation we focus on strengths and will provide tailored training and opportunities, including the chance to study for professional qualifications.

We are looking for exceptional individuals to help lead the company and its people towards achieving challenging growth targets in all our chosen markets worldwide.

Ministry of Education, Singapore

Website: <http://www.moe.gov.sg/careers/teach/>

Why Singapore should be on your resume...

Singapore's education system is well-recognised and highly regarded around the world. A recent study by McKinsey on education systems in different countries has rated Singapore amongst the top (The Economist, 2007).

International teachers have contributed to our schools for generations, and we believe we can offer you a meaningful and fulfilling career. You teach because you want to make a difference. And building your expertise by teaching abroad makes that difference even more significant.

Be Different. Teach in Singapore.

We are looking for teachers for English, Economics, Geography or History. Successful candidates can look forward to an attractive remuneration package, with relocation allowance and return air passage upon successful completion of contract.

Jane Street Capital

Website: www.janestcapital.com

Jane Street Capital, LLC is a proprietary trading firm that operates around the clock and around the globe. We bring a deep understanding of markets, a scientific approach, and innovative technology to bear on the problem of trading profitably in the world's highly competitive financial markets, focusing primarily on equities and equity derivatives.

Founded in 2000, Jane Street employs over 150 people in offices in New York, Chicago, London and Tokyo, as well as on the American Stock exchange and the Chicago Board Options Exchange. Our entrepreneurial culture is driven by our talented team of traders and programmers.

The environment at Jane Street is open, informal, intellectual and fun. You can wear a t-shirt and jeans to the office every day, the kitchen is stocked, and discussions are always lively. Teaching and learning are central activities through classes, mentoring and discussion.
